Ref. C.No. 6189/27 A, dated 25th March 1928.

Sir,

* Advances - Loan - Bellary Taluk - Harpanahalli - village Sivalinganahalli, S.Nos. 74, 75, 78, 79 and 80.
Namakartham lands - cancellation asked for.

ENCLOSURES

SPARE COPIES

One T. Hanumanthappa of Sivalinganahalli was, granted a loan of Rs.250/- in Ag. No.38/1330 dated 18-2-21 by the Tahsildar of Harpanahalli on the security of dry lands noted below.

		A. Cents.	Assessment.
Govt. Dty.	74	19 24	2 7 0
	75	10 14	1 4 0
		29 38	3 11 0

2. The borrower failed to pay the instalment in 1335 fasli and the lands hypothecated for loan were brought to sale and declared namakartham by the Revenue Divisional Officer, Hospet on 1-6-26 as there were no bids.

3. Other lands belonging to the defaulter namely S.Nos. 78, 79 and 80 and his house were also brought to sale. The house fetched Rs.54/- and the sale was confirmed by the Revenue Divisional Officer, Hospet on 4-10-26. But the lands fetched no bids and they were confirmed as Namakartham by the Divisional Officer, Hospet on 21-9-26, 1-10-26 and 3-2-27.

4. There is an outstanding arrear of Rs.187-4-9 due from the borrower. Under rule XI Note ii of the Revised Loan Rules the officer sanctioning the loan is mainly responsible for the loss. The loan was sanctioned by Ane M.R.Ry.; A.S. Venkoba Rao, the then Tahsildar who has now retired and settled down at Harpanahalli. He is now prepared to bid for S.Nos. 74, 75, 78, 79 and 80 of Sivalinganahalli to the extent of loans arrears if the lands are brought to sale.

5 As there is other prospect of realising the arrears I recommend that the namakarthm sale of the above lands may be cancelled.

Please see the letter from the Col^r of Bellary at pp 1-2 of 2. From the Sale record, it is seen that the security lands were brought to Sale for areas relating to fashis arwards. As there were no bids, the lands were bought in by govt. The Sale was confirmed by the H. D. O on 1.6.26. The ~~sale of the~~ other lands and a house belonging to the defaulters were also sold. The Sale of the house was confirmed on 4.10.26. Part of the land on 21.9.26 and 3.10.26.
The Col^r has taken such a long time to move the govt for the Cancellation of the land sale. In view of the Com^r's report that the Tah^y who sanctioned the loan is prepared to bid for the lands to the extent of the loan amount, if the lands are brought to sale, it is for order whether the land sales may be cancelled.

p24

In the circumstances
reported by the Col^r.
4.28 the sale of the lands may be cancelled and a resale ordered. ~~and a resale~~

Bfm
3.4.28 Re paragraph 4 of the Col^r's letter it is submitted that the officer granting the loan is not responsible for loss resulting from absence of bids at the sale but only if the valuation was improper. The Col^r. does not say whether there was anything wrong with the valuation of the security lands.

now, the returned Tahildar is prepared to purchase the lands for the loan amount.
It is to be hoped that he will not decline to do so when the lands are actually put up for sale again.

the CM's proposal to cancel the sale of the bought in car may be approved and it he pointed out to him that he should have addressed the board earlier in the month
